

the TRENDS

Our wedding-worthy edit of what's new and trending right now

French Kisses

Une Nuit a Paris from French Collection by Wendy Makin has a – you guessed it – distinctly Parisian vibe, fusing modern elements, classic styling and luxury fabrics. Highlights from the new capsule collection include art deco-inspired Palais (pictured), adorned with iridescent beading and angel-winged sleeves, and Elysee – ideal for laidback brides wanting an easy-breezy feel. wendymakin.com

Pearly queens

How better to thank your maids than with a piece from Wanderlust Life? With mother of pearl, grey pearls and nautical knots, the latest collection has a distinctly maritime feel, while still being completely and utterly beautiful. They make the perfect finishing touch. wanderlustlife.co.uk

14ct gold ring, £50

Mother of pearl necklace, £86

HIGH-STREET HERO

It's been a long-time coming, but Warehouse has finally launched a bridal range – and it's well worth the wait. The 19-piece edit offers a range of silhouettes in luxe chiffon and satin, for both brides and maids wanting a low-key look. Pick from a palette of baby pink, navy and ivory, and check out the floral number with ultra-feminine fluted sleeves and tie-back details. From £79, warehouse.co.uk

NEW OPENINGS

Check out the new bridalwear kids on the block with these bricks-and-mortar boutique launches. Elbows at the ready!

ROSA CLARA

Sophisticated and timeless – yet still very much of the moment – Rosa Clara's stunning designs have been the discerning bride's label of choice since the brand hit the scene in 1995. So, with open arms we welcome the label's brand-new London store – its first in the UK. Make an appointment at the Mayfair boutique to swoon over the lines first hand, from Rosa Clara Couture and Rosa Clara Bohème to Rosa Clara Cocktail. 17 Woodstock Street, London; rosaclara.es

SUSIE WARNER

For beautifully handmade pieces and lashings of vintage glamour, stop by Susie Warner's new high-street boutique in Newport, Isle of Wight. After 10 years in the bridal biz as an online retailer, Susie and her team are delighted to welcome brides to come in and try on the pieces. 5 Watchbell Lane, Isle of Wight; susiewarner.com

Mother superior

Get ready to indulge the mums! These gorge designs from Veni Infantino's new spring line are all about flattering silhouettes and classic tailoring with delicate touches – think hand-finished floral embellishments, textured fabrics, pretty cap sleeves and belts. Accessorise with chic courts and a hat or dramatic headpiece (of course) for ultimate wow factor. ronaldjoyce.com
